

Privacy release

Privacy release required to become a member of the Macedon Ranges Running Club Inc (MRRC):

The Privacy Act 1988 sets out laws in relation to collection of personal information.

At Macedon Ranges Running Club Inc. (MRRC) this information may include names, addresses, email addresses, telephone numbers, membership details, medical details, family details, and results of MRRC runs. We commit to only collecting information that is necessary for the conduct of normal MRRC activities and events, and for the safety of members and participants in MRRC activities and events.

The information will be available for use by MRRC officials, committee members and general members only for the express purpose of running MRRC activities and events, publishing event results and ensuring participants safety.

In providing information to the MRRC of a personal nature, you agree that you understand its necessity and agree with its use as outlined here, unless you specify otherwise. You are entitled to access the personal information the club has of you in its records and to have any errors corrected.

If you have any questions regarding our compliance with the legislation, or the use of your personal information, please contact one of the MRRC officers.
